

PROJECT MANAGER

At Dime Comunicaciones we believe in transforming the future by creating real opportunities and new projects for a brighter future - for ourselves, our colleagues, our partners, our communities and the digital community in Europe.

PROFILE PROJECT MANAGER

We are looking for an experienced project development leader who will focus on the Italian market and be responsible for building out and leading our growth to increase vertical activities and projects.

This role will focus on developing and assisti a sizable portfolio of development projects to serve major media, technology, telco, digital companies via joint-development agreements in share with Ceo and President.

Responsibilities include evaluating project development opportunities and relationships from a strategic, tactical, and financial point of view with the goal of developing new projects as well as evaluating and acquiring new and innovative projects.

The position will work closely with the Company's cross functional teams and report to the Ceo and President.

Experience and competencies

- 3-5 years minimum media and technology experience in project development;
- Proven ability to lead project development from Communication and Marketing (CORCOM) ready-to-act; and to evaluate acquisitions and propositions (A&P) opportunities;
- Clear understanding of italian market and scenario;
- Demonstrated ability to form and drive new market strategies and applications;
- Skilled at analysing opportunities and arriving at clear decisions, utilizing detailed analysis;
- Experience with stakeholders and power markets, customers, and deal institutions;
- Proven ability to form and collaboratively work with cross function teams, including legal, project finance, communication, event team and marketing;
- Ability to stay current with changing policies, regulations, and market trends, including building and maintaining strong relationships with broadcasters, media compay, digital structure, institutional players, and other key industry leaders;

Location: Italy

What we offer

- Competitive Package and premium bonus;

- A positive culture where everyone is encouraged to achieve their full potential. A great position to grow;
- The opportunity to work in a supportive, and challenging environment where you really can have impact and make a real difference.

We look for people who share our values and vision, who want to make a difference in a very special way, who are honest and creative, have courage and are forward thinking and balance tenacity with respect for others, foolish ideas and new projects. If you have these qualities then you may just be the talent we are looking for!

To apply, please submit a CV and Covering Letter explaining how your experience matches the requirements of our position and how your personal motivators and values align to Dime Comunicaciones purpose.

Applications Close Date 15 November 2019

You can submit your CV in English or in Italian or in Spanish:

andrea@dimecomunica.com

Job offer statement

The Company provides equal opportunities to all employees and applicants for employment, free from artificial considerations based on any status or condition protected by law in the relevant jurisdiction, such as race, sex, gender origin, marital status, family situation or pregnancy, religion, nationality, sexual orientation, age, veteran status, political opinion or disability. Sonnedix explicitly states that it does not prevent employees from associating freely. Only those qualifications and skills that are important to the job will form the selection criteria for recruitment and promotion.